Brandon.Bain@AccidentFund.com

Brandon has been an Accident Fund loss control consultant since 2018, providing loss control services to customers in Indiana.

With more than 10 years of experience in the safety industry, Brandon has held the position of corporate safety manager for Scalable Press and Tecta America – the largest roofing company in the U.S. In that role, he built their safety programs from the ground up, provided safety inspections for their facilities across the country and provided methods for ensuring building compliance with code and OSHA regulations.

Brandon graduated from Purdue University with a dual major – a bachelor's degree in both occupational health and safety and industrial hygiene. He has obtained the Associate Safety Professional (ASP) and the Construction Health and Safety Technician (CHST) designations. He has also completed several OSHA courses, is a CERTA instructor and a trainer for a wide range of health and safety programs.
